VII. Homebound Environment Required for Delivery

- a. Volunteers are unable to assist patrons with other errands, household chores, etc. They are there for library purposes.
- b. Volunteers are not to search for missing or misplaced library items. It is the responsibility of the Patron to keep track of all materials for return.
- c. Patrons requesting homebound delivery services must provide a safe and appropriate environment for all volunteers and staff members who make deliveries to their homes and patrons must protect all library materials while in their custody. Volunteers or staff members reserve the right to choose not to enter a home, to leave a home immediately and/or to recommend suspension of the service if any of the following conditions exist:
 - Pets are not confined (with the exception of service animals trained to assist a disabled person).
 - A clear and safe path to the home, with snow shoveled and ice removed.
 - Any person in the home is dressed in revealing attire
 - Any person in the home presents threatening behavior
 - Any person in the home uses abusive or obscene language, makes obscene gestures or displays obscene images.
 - Any person in the home harasses the library's representative
 - Any person in the home exhibits signs of illness that may jeopardize the health of the library's representative and the library has not be notified of the illness.
 - Any person is smoking inside the home at the time of the library's delivery.
 - Any person is engaging in any illegal activity in the home at the time of the library's delivery.
 - Conditions in the home are unsafe or unsanitary

Elmwood Public Library Homebound Service Policy

- d. If a volunteer or staff member must leave the home, deny service, or wishes to recommend suspension of service because the occurrence of any of the above is deemed to make the home environment for delivery unsafe or inappropriate, the volunteer or staff member shall provide the Elmwood Library Director with notice of why such action occurred together with any recommendation for length of suspension of service.
- e. The Elmwood Library Director shall send written notice to the patron of the reason for and the length of any continuing suspension of service.
- f. Any homebound patron may request in writing that the suspension of service be reviewed by the Board of Trustees at the next monthly Board Meeting.
